STEPHEN LLOYD AWARDS

Meet the Speakers

Krista Cartlidge

Krista has led MYTIME Young Carers as CEO since 2019, winning the 2020 Stephen Lloyd Awards and driving its growth from supporting 75 young carers to over 3,000. A former teacher and passionate advocate, she was inducted into the Charity Hall of Fame in 2025 and shortlisted as a Charity Champion in the Best Businesswomen Awards for her visionary leadership.

Dr Peter Grant

A senior lecturer at Bayes Business School, Peter is one of the UK's leading experts in public and charitable funding strategy. He has shaped multi billion pound grant programmes, where he oversaw over £4.5 billion in funding initiatives. He launched the world's first master's level programme in grantmaking and philanthropy at Bayes, where he teaches philanthropy, social investment and charity governance.

Jill Garrett

Jill is Executive Director of Tentpeg Consulting and a specialist coach in leadership and organisational culture with 40+ years' experience across global corporates and charities. She applies strengths-based coaching to build high performing, values-led teams. Her work blends governance, engagement, growth, and culture change with practical programmes for wellbeing and resilience, helping leaders see opportunities, create possibilities, and sustain performance to deliver effectively to those they serve.

Jim Clifford OBE

Jim is a recognised expert in social impact measurement and investment strategy, having led over 300 impact studies for charities large and small and other bodies in the UK and overseas. As CEO of Sonnet Advisory & Impact, Honorary Professor at Sheffield Hallam University, and Hon. Senior Fellow at City St George's, University of London, he advises on frameworks that maximise social value, helping shape EU Impact Measurement Standards. A trustee of Bates Wells Foundation and one of the original founders of the Stephen Lloyd Awards, Jim continues to champion its mission.
